Zoning Map Master Plan Says Board

The planning commission considers the zoning map presented to them by the city council, "a revised master plan," Commissioner Herbert Blanks stated at yesterday afternoon's commission meeting. He made this remark reporting on a Monday night meeting of the chairman's committee of the planning commission. Commissioners present at this meeting considered the advantages and disadvantages of the central district zoning map, prepared by City Clerk Larry Rose, Building Inspector Floyd Adams and City Attorney John Morse at the request of Mayor John Chitwood. Although commissioners recognized the desirability of the transition zone feathering out multiple dwelling density towards the residential area, as specifically marked on the zoning map, Blanks continued, they felt there was a need for a zone for light industry service uses. Commissioners at the Monday night meeting, said Mr. Blanks, thought that the map prepared by the three city officials gave the impression of "no real need for a light industry zone." They also considered that "a great deal of revision" was required for commercial uses in the yellow (retail business, service, limited multiple residence) zone.

"There is too much yellow and not enough light blue," said Commissioner Keeble at this point. He was referring to the small light blue area allocated to all uses in the red (central shopping district) and yellow zones, plus motels. "There are not a great many more commercial uses permitted in the yellow zone than in the red zone, very little chance for new uses coming in, and no space for other

Council Approves Environs Part Of Master Plan

After a year of letting it lie around in the files, the city council studied the planning commission's extended version of the Livingston Master Plan for Carmel and Environs Tuesday night and informally approved the "Environs."

The plan, which it appears the council will shortly officially adopt, looks like an artist's palette, its boundary running down the coast from Pescadero Canyon to Point Lobos, then inland, bulging out as much as two miles east of Highway 1 in the Carmel Valley. The hole for the artist's thumb is the Carmel Business District. This will be considered separately.

Though individual councilmen questioned some of the features of the amended version for the environs, they decided to let them pass, with one exception, for several reasons. The city has no authority over most of the area taken in; many of the features, described as "iffies" by Mayor John Chitwood, are dependent on impractical or far distant contingencies.

The exception, and still in abeyance, is Junipero as an arterial four lane street from Ocean Avenue north to the future freeway overpass. The council has to keep

Bishop Pike To Install New Pastor The Rev. David St. Leger Hill At All Saints' Church Friday Night

Change in time for a special service to install formally the new rector of All Saints' Episcopal Church is announced today by the pastor, the Rev. David St. Leger Hill.

The recent unexpected death of the Rt. Rev. Karl Morgan Block, late bishop of California, who was to have conducted the rite next Sunday, necessitated scheduling it for 8:00 p.m. tomorrow (Friday).

The bishop's successor, the Rt. Rev. James Albert Pike, will lead the service. This will be his first official visit to the local parish.

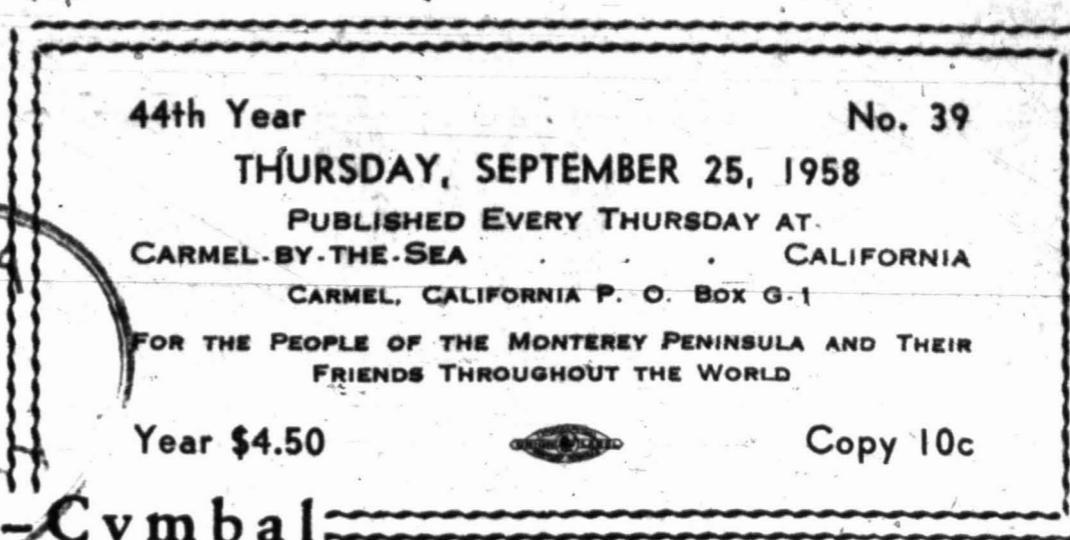

Participating in the evening ceremony will be Episcopal and other clergy of the Peninsula, as well as All Saints' wardens and vestrymen, parishioners and the public.

The ritual, which is called institution of the rector, will be highlighted by presentation of the church keys to Mr. Hill by Senior Warden Stuart O. Blythe and Junior Warden Edward K. Neroda. Immediately following, Bishop Pike will hand the rector the Bible, the Book of Common Prayer, a volume containing the canons of the church, and subsequently he will receive Mr. Hill into All Saints' sanctuary.

A procession starting the service will include all three choirs of the church, the wardens and vestrymen, Episcopal clergy of the Peninsula, as well as guest participants. The latter are Dr. K. Fillmore Gray, Church of the Wayfarer minister, and Dr. Joseph M. Ewing, Carmel Presbyterian Church pastor.

Following the service Bishop Pike and Mr. Hill will be accorded

Carmel Pt. Polls Property Owners On Annexation

The Board of Directors of the Carmel Point Home Owners Association has decided that it would be to the benefit of the property owners of the Point to annex to Carmel. Yesterday, they sent out letters to their membership with return card enclosures for a postcard poll.

"The purpose of this letter is to get the thinking of our entire membership. If the majority favor annexation, we can then proceed vigorously in conforming with the legal procedure," the letter states.

The first step in the legal procedure that affects the City of Carmel would be a petition from the Point residents to the city council.

The council, anticipating the possibility of such a move last year, appointed an annexation fact finding committee headed by Chris Neddersen. This committee, after twelve monthly meetings has completed its work. The sub-committees have turned in their reports to a committee of three which is digesting the material for presentation to the city council at the October 8 meeting.

If and when the council is petitioned, it will have exact and detailed information from a committee of its own citizens as to additional cost to the city of annexation, additional tax revenue that would be involved, additional services that would be needed. This information has been broken down for individual areas as well as for the entire surrounding unincorporated area. The council will be prepared whether it is faced with the problem or over-all piecemeal annexation.

The Neddersen Committee will make no recommendation as to whether or not Carmel should annex the outlying areas. It was not the committee's function to decide policy. Neddersen has insisted from the first, but to provide the council with figures and facts that it

Armstrong Opens Friday Jazz Fest Concert; Big Band, Battle Of Combos Saturday; Long-Hair Sunday Evening

The First Annual Monterey Jazz Festival, October 3, 4 and 5 at the Monterey County Fairgrounds, will feature top artists from as far away as Paris (Sidney Bechet).

Louis Armstrong and his Quintet will open the Dixieland concert Friday night, and other featured artists will be Sidney Bechet, Lizzie Miles, Burt Bales' Dixielanders, Pete Daily, and the only local group appearing, the Jake Stock's Abalone Stompers.

Saturday afternoon will be the Big Band rehearsal, with the Rudy Salvinis and the Med Flory bands, with Pete Ruguló conducting the combined orchestras for the finale. Shelley Mann and his Men, the Master Sounds, the Virgil Gonzales sextet, Brew Moore, Léroy Vinnegar and his Quartet, the Mel Lewis-Bill Holman Quintet, vocalists Betty Bennett Previn and Buddy De Franco complete the roster, with Pat Henry, of KROW, Oakland, a jazz disc jockey, narrating.

Saturday night program is called the Battle of the Combos, featuring Dizzy Gillespie's new Quintet, the Modern Jazz Quartet, Cal Tjader's Quintet, the Gerry Mulligan Quartet, the Jimmy Giuffre Trio, Sonny Rollins, Max Roach Quintet, a nd vocalist Ernestine Anderson. Disc Jockey Jimmy Lyons, general manager of the Festival, will emcee this performance.

Sunday afternoon Symphony Conductor Gregory Millar's 70 piece orchestra, called the Monterey Jazz Festival Symphony, will perform three excerpts from Bartok, Stravinsky and Hindemith, with André Previn performing the 3rd movement of the Bartok 3rd Piano Concerto as soloist with the orchestra. Dave Brubeck's Quartet will perform new jazz works of Howard Brubeck, and the Modern

Es Geht Uns Gut This Week End — It's Oktoberfest

Carmel visitors won't have to get out white tie and tails for the Oktoberfest tomorrow and Saturday at the Fairgrounds in Monterey. It's a come-as-you-are, relaxed, casual, old fashioned German beer festival. Visitors and residents who have attended previous festivals know it isn't long before the music takes hold and the singing and dancing begins.

And it looks now as if Weimarans will be the only authentic German note missing! Certainly everything else that might contribute to the flavor of an authentic Bavarian Beer Festival will be available. The Oktoberfest committee has readied 350 kegs of German beer, 15,000 stoneware beer steins, tyrolean hats, sauerkraut, kartoffelsalat, brotchen, the music of a real German band and entertainment galore.

German societies from the San Francisco Bay Area have chartered busses and formed excursion parties. Approximately 1,700 club members are expected and many of them will be dressed in their colorful costumes.

Miss Alberta Krader, European zither player, has interrupted her current tour in order to perform here.

Tickets cost $1.50.

Oktoberfest dates are September 26, from 6:00 p.m. to midnight, and September 27, from 2:00 p.m. to midnight. American sponsored orphans in Western Germany derive the entire profits after expenses, again this year.

No minors will be allowed.

Council To Hold Hearing Tuesday On Motel Ordinance

The city council will hold public hearing at 8:00 o'clock, Tuesday night, on an amendment to the interim zoning ordinance intended to give the planning commission density control over multiple dwelling construction.

The proposed amendment is one of three sent to the planning commission by the council last month. After holding public hearing on the three amendments, the planning commission recommended one to the council.

The surviving amendment gives the planning commission discretionary control over site coverage, whereas the rejected amendments specified that site coverage should be limited to 60 percent, the remainder to be used for off-street parking and landscaping.

CARMEL WINS ROOTERS TROPHY

Last Friday night at the Salinas Jamboree, the Carmel High School Rooting Section was awarded the "Best Rooting Section" Trophy. This is the second year that this award has been made and both times Carmel has walked away with it. Schools are judged on how well the section is organized and its appearance. This year Carmel had a white background with the letters CHS spelled out in red.

The trophy is perpetual and in order to claim it forever it must be won three times by one school. If Carmel can win it again next year, it is theirs to keep.

Carmel Rooters were led by cheerleaders: Susie Mosolf, Hilary Teague, Wendy Draper and Phyllis Clayton. The Carmel songleaders Sharon Heisel, Veronica Taylor, Lucinda Lloyd and Gay Fremier did a fine job.

Congratulations, Carmel High School, keep up the spirit!

LOBOS STUN SEQUOIA GIANTS, 22 TO 8

Coach George Porter's small but scrappy MPC football squad took the best shots delivered by the bulky College of Sequoia aggregation but came back strong to riddle the visitors, 22 to 8, in the opening game for both teams this season. The spirited Lobos were giving away weight at all positions but showed crisp blocking, agile pursuit, and ability to move the ball through the air and on the ground.

The Giants broke in front, 8 to 0, midway of the first quarter but it was all MPC after the initial score by the visitors. With Claude Crabb at the controls, the Lobos moved 79 yards in six plays to deadlock the issue. Big Larry Guilford, ex-Santa Clara High prep standout, ate up most of the distance with a 50-yard pass completion. This big end looks to be the best in Northern California JC circles and is a perfect foil for the clever passing and running of quarterback Claude Crabb.

MPC got the go-ahead touchdown when Ted Smith, ex-Padre all-leaguer, dashed into a Crabb pass in the Giant end zone. Hal Lopez, a fullback from Pacific Grove, supplied an insurance touchdown in the fourth quarter, sparking a 70-yard drive with slashing slants and cutbacks. Joe Mason, another ex-Padre, was the top defensive lineman on the field and did an outstanding job of blocking at his guard position.

The Lobos are idle this week but return to action October 4 when the strong Ventura Junior College invades the MPC stadium.

PADRES HOLD RED AND GRAY INTRASQUAD GAME FRIDAY AFTERNOON

Carmel High's varsity football squad sprinkled with some of Fred Rainer's huskier junior - varsity candidates engages in its first full-scale game of the season Friday afternoon in the annual Red & Gray intrasquad game. Slated for a 3:15 kickoff, the Red & Gray tussle is always a spirited contest with all the players having an opportunity to move into a starting position on the varsity. This year's intrasquad is more important to the varsity squad than any in the past since it will be the only preliminary game before the league-opener with King City on October 4th.

Coach Don Craig and Captain Phil White will lead the Red squad consisting of Toby Edson, Nick Vertin, Andy Elliott, and White at the ends; Norman Colman, Ron Adams, Sam Farr, and Tom Green at the tackles; Deen Rowe, Tom Stanford, Mike Marquard, and Roger Diefendorf at the guards; Steve Gann and Harrison Hilbert, tackles; Cim Conway and Frank Mayo, quarterbacks; Darrell Clark and Mike Draper, halfbacks; Bud Conroy and Gary Preece, fullbacks; Ron Faia and Bill Coleman, halfbacks. Coach Lew McCreey's Gray unit will be manned by Captain Bill Hicks, Pat Boyle, Jamie Holman, and Fritz Scheffer at the ends; Chris Wilkin, Brian LaNeve, Chris Dancy, and John Wilkin at the tackles; Al Eaker, Fred Bucher, Van Treat, and Larry Dufur at the guards; Dave Vincent and Paul Rice, tackles; Craig Smith and Russ Wise, quarterbacks; Dennis Peavey, Richard Muniz, Jeff Smith, and Bob Moore, halfbacks; David Hanson and John Moffett, fullbacks.

Regular officials from the Coast Counties Officials Association will blow the whistle for Friday's civil war and the game will have all the trimmings of a regular interschool tilt. The public is invited to view the game and the price is right-free.

CARMEL JUNIOR VARSITY PLAYS AT MONTEREY SATURDAY AFTERNOON

The freshman - sophomore studed Carmel High junior - varsity engages in its first action of the current season this Saturday afternoon at the Monterey High stadium, tackling the Toreadore jayvees in a 12:15 practice game. Coach Fred Rainer is high on his small but hard-hitting Padrecitos and rates them even better than his all-winning combination of last year. The Little Padres will open against Monterey with a starting lineup of Doyle Clayton, Toby Edson, Paul Rice, Ron Adams, Fred Bucher, Nick Molitor, Brian La-

How to do it better with WATER

DISHWASHING MADE EASIER THAN EVER...

If you really want to give water a chance to work more efficiently—and save yourself hours of work—be sure to look into the new automatic dishwashers. They're better than ever!

With these new modern servants you can use much hotter water than by hand washing.

And the new dishwashers give extra rinses—clean just about everything better, including pots and pans. There are many types to choose from, including free-standing models, counter top types that work without electricity and the sink attachments that replace your faucets.

The constant improvement in dishwashers and appliances is stimulated by competition. While ours is not a competitive business, we feel that regulation is a substitute for competition. A State Commission must approve our water rates and the income we may produce for our investors. And in our constant need for new capital to finance construction and improvements, we do face stiff competition from unregulated industries that earn at a much higher rate than we do.

Bishop Block was honored yesterday morning with a requiem Holy Communion at St. James' Episcopal Church in Monterey, simultaneously with one held at Grace Cathedral in San Francisco, where the late diocesan succumbed Friday while ordaining three deacons. All Saints' parish office remained closed yesterday morning in respect to Bishop Block, who maintained a home in Carmel and was a member of the parish.

His death caused the automatic succession of the Rt. Rev. Pike as sixth bishop of California. Up to that time, Bishop Pike was coadjutor of the diocese and was to have taken over as diocesan in December, when Bishop Block would have retired.

Armstrong Opens Jazz Festival October 3rd

(Continued from Page One) Jazz Quartet will perform works by Andre Hodeir and Werner Heider. A special percussion composition has been commissioned for this concert, written by Peter Phillips and to be performed with the orchestra by three of the jazz world's greatest drummers: Max Roach, Shelley Manne and Joe Morello.

The final concert for the Jazz Festival, Sunday night, will feature Harry James' new orchestra, Billie Holiday, Andre Previn and his pals, Dave Brubeck playing a jazz set, and jam session with the entire James band, joined by Benny Carter, Dizzy Gillespie, Bobby Brookmeyer, Gerry Mulligan, Willie Smith, Art Farmer, and others. Ionoëlast Mort Sahl will do a take-off of jazz-and-poetry.

The grounds will be open from 4:00 to 11:00 o'clock Friday, from 11:00 in the morning to 10:00 o'clock at night on Saturday and Sunday. The afternoon concerts, Saturday and Sunday will start at 2:30; all evening concerts at 8:15.

Peninsula organizations will man food booths to benefit their various charities: Carmel Lions will sell tacos and soft drinks; the Jewish Community, steak and pastrami sandwiches; Knights of Columbus, hamburgers and soft drinks; Monterey Kiwanis, hot dogs and corn on the cob; the Monterey Junior Chamber of Commerce, beer.

The facilities of the Hunt Club, under the sponsorship of the Monterey County Symphony Guild, will be open to box seat holders.

Sport Notes—

(Continued from Page Two) and Monterey packed too much power for the West contingent of Salinas JV, King City, Gonzales, Watsonville, and Salinas last Friday night in the Annual CCAL Football Jamboree and finished on the long end of a 38-19 score. San Lorenzo got the East off winging by downing the Salinas Varsity Reserves, 6 to 0, as Randy Ward ran and passed for the Cougar score. Carmel's red-clad Padres put 13 points on the board for the East as they powered past King City, 13 to 0. Led by the terrific line play of Al Eaker and Norman Colman, the Padres matched the vaunted King City line and opened holes for the swift slants of halfbacks Dennis Peavey and Ron Faia. Dare-Conroy ran for one Padre six-pointer and Bill Hicks racked up the other on a 25-yard pass from quarterback Jim Conway. A fine defensive play by transfer guard Tom Stanford thwarted a King City touchdown drive on the Carmel 12-yard line. Tom diagnosed a King City pass attempt and pinned the passer for a 15-yard loss. King City, operating from the unfamiliar single-wing offense, appeared uncertain in their offensive assignments but fielded a big, fast-moving team which is sure to be a threat for the league title this season.

Gonzales High's fleet backfield ran away from Pacific Grove on a pair of long-gainers to post a 7-6 win over the Breakers. Joe Montes, the top running back in the E-division of the CCAL, was in top form for the Spartans and appears headed for a banner season. Pacific Grove's Steve Perkins, a nifty quarterback, and halfback Dick Adams provided most of the Breaker punch.

Santa Cruz put the East out of reach by outscoring Watsonville, 13 to 0, as the Cardinals lived up to all favorable advance notices. Coach Harry Seimering's squad is big, fast, and handles an intricate offense with professional precision. In the other A-league clash, Salinas ran away from Monterey, 13 to 0, to give the West a chance to cheer.

CARMEL LIONS SEE STARS

At the regular meeting last Tuesday night at Tom's Cafe the Carmel Lions saw stars when Commander Howell Armor held forth on the signs of the Zodiac, to the edification of all those present. The props used were drawings of the individual signs on a field of heavenly blue—with gold stars arranged to outline the respective constellations. The Commander's

Psyche Of Diane O'Day At Studio Is Spicy And Fast-Moving Fun

BY MAX TADLOCK

If there is a special segment of the American population likely to be hypersensitive to the more nauseous TV offerings, that segment is probably composed of devotees of the legitimate theatre. Accustomed to well-knit dramatic structure, significant characterizations, and purposeful writing, they have long since decided that mawkishness and obviousness are the norm on television.

Jerry De Bono's play, The Psyche of Diane O'Day, which had its premiere at the Studio Theatre Friday night, reiterates their theme, and with some extremely clever dialogue. Mr. De Bono is a very funny writer. But despite the light spicy touch—the play is subtitled, A New Farce—the hackneyed subject itself seemed always a bit dull and obvious.

However, the hearty enjoyable swipes he takes at modern preoccupation with psychology and psychoanalysis are indeed fresh and delightful. And perhaps this is really what Mr. De Bono has to say. But the focus on TV's banality makes the play a trifle thin in its overall effect.

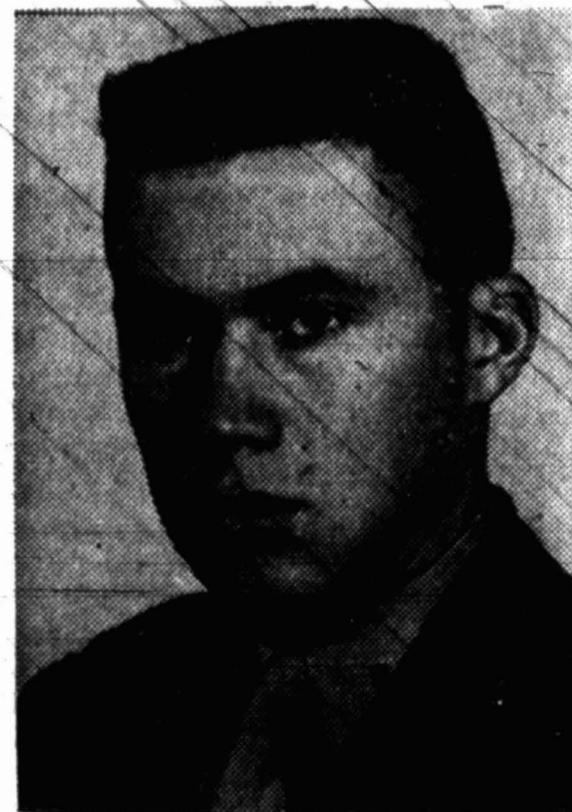

His story concerns the tribulations of a successful but neurotic young TV soap-opera writer George Avery Jones, ably protracted by himself, who is living in convenient sin with his secretary Selena Fuller. Love rears its emotional head in their relationship and to further the complication his sponsors decide to drop his TV show, Diane O'Day, because of its psychoanalytic obsessiveness. Through the bumbling of his new but comforting secretary April March, the really monstrous script of one of his yokel fans is accidentally produced on his show. Jones is then deserted in rapid succession by his sponsor, by his producer who gets him blackballed, and by his agent who has discovered a new TV genius in the yokel. Love again rears its head, and he and Selena fall into a mad and curtain-closing clinch.

Neuri Adams, who plays Selena, is a vibrant and refreshing comedienne with a keen sense of timing. Her presence added greatly to the show's sparkle. A nice bit of casting placed Pat Rafferty in the opposing role of the new secretary April March. Miss Rafferty's laugh-provoking performance was in the dizzy Carol Haney tradition, a sharp contrast in comedy styles to Miss Adams.

Betty Fowlston's dynamic personality gave real lift to the role of Klavonia Tsaresski, the agent, although she was handicapped by one longish didactic scene where she and Jones discuss the problems of being an honest writer. Jones' harassed producer was portrayed by Allen Graham.

The hillbilly yokel fan was very broadly interpreted by Clifford Berry, but perhaps there is little any actor could do with the role.

Jack Hilgers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph J. Hilgers, graduated from Officers' Basic School at Quantico, Virginia, on August 30 as a second lieutenant in the U.S. Marines Corps. He graduated from San Jose State College before attending the 34-week basic training course compulsory for all Marine officers, whether graduated from U.S. Naval Academy, promoted from the enlisted ranks or commissioned through one of the college or university programs.

One wonders if an audience will any longer accept the agog hayseed in the big city as an object of amusement, no matter how ludicrous the situation he may point up.

William Glaves earned the applause for the excellent set and well-spaced direction.

Despite some obvious weaknesses (the end must have come straight from a TV studio cutting-room floor), The Psyche of Diane O'Day gave the first night audience an evening of spicy and fast moving fun. Future performances are scheduled for Friday and Saturday nights only.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SERMON

The spiritual, harmonious nature of God's creation including man will be brought out at Christian Science services this Sunday.

Among the Bible passages to be read in the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Reality" is this one: "The prophet that hath a dream, let him tell a dream; and he that hath my word, let him speak my word faithfully. What is the chaff to wheat? saith the Lord" (Jeremiah 23:28).

Correlative passages from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy will include this: "Jesus' demonstrations sift the chaff from the wheat, and unfold the unity and the reality of good, the unreality, the nothingness, of evil" (269:5).

The Golden Text is from Psalms (45:6): "Thy throne, O God, is forever and ever; the sceptre of thy kingdom is a right sceptre."

Stowell Show Opens
Tues. At Town House

Work of Royal Stowell, a member of the Carmel Foundation, will be shown during October at the Foundation Town House. Mr. Stowell studied at Pratt Institute in Brooklyn and at Cooper Union in New York under Victor Perard; the Art Students' League under Eugene Speicher and Edward Dufner. He was one of the organizers of the League of American Artists with George Bellows.

For many years Mr. Stowell maintained studios in Atlanta, Georgia, and Hamilton, Bermuda, where he painted portraits. At one time he was curator of the Vanderbilt paintings at Biltmore House, Biltmore, N. C. He also restored many of these paintings. Mr. Stowell's work hangs in a number of public buildings, including the New York State Capitol, the Court of Appeals, the Jefferson County Historical Museum, the Coca Cola Building, Atlanta, Georgia, the Nevada State Capitol, Sewanee University, and San Bernardino Valley Junior College.

The exhibition at Town House will include portraits, landscapes and seascapes. The opening date is September 30, and the hours are daily, Monday through Friday, from 10:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. during October.

O. L. Garrison

Oliver Lawrence Garrison III died unexpectedly on Sunday in the men's locker room after swimming in the pool at the Beach Club.

Mr. Garrison was born on November 16, 1906, in St. Louis, Missouri, and was a real estate salesman in that city until three and a half years ago, when he moved to Carmel.

He was a member of the Beach Club and the University Club of St. Louis, and a World War II Army veteran.

Survivors are his wife Phyllis and two sons, Oliver Lawrence Garrison IV and Arthur Weber Garrison, all of Carmel Woods.

Mrs. Teschke

Mrs. Dorothy Ruth Teschke died on Saturday morning in a San Francisco hospital after a short illness.

She was born in South Bend, Indiana, on July 11, 1900. Members of her family were among the early settlers of that community. In 1947 she and her husband Henry A. Teschke left South Bend, where they were married in 1920, and came to live in Carmel.

Mrs. Teschke was a member of the Monterey Chapter, No. 239, Order of the Eastern Star; the White Shrine of Jerusalem Golden Rule Shrine No. 43 of Monterey, the Carmel Woman's Club and the Church of the Wayfarer.

Besides her husband, she is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Charles N. Pearson of Carmel and Mrs. R. H. McAllister of Berlin, Germany; and five grandchildren. Monterey Chapter No. 239, OES, conducted funeral services on Tuesday with Dr. K. Fillmore Gray, pastor of the Church of the Wayfarer officiating.

Friends wishing to honor Mrs. Teschke's memory are asked to do so in the form of donations to the Shriner's Crippled Children's Hospital in San Francisco.

AMERICAN TRUST BARBECUE

At Bolado Park recently, 130 members of the Monterey County Chapter of the American Trust Club and their guests, golfed, played softball, swam and made merry over a steak barbecue. John Sokolich, chairman of the entertainment committee, was in charge of arrangements.

Autumn offers the year's richest bounty in Harvest . . .

Holidays and zest for living . . .

California's Indian Summer brings a special western version of autumn's russets, bronzes and golds, of purple grape clusters, of orange pumpkins, of mellow Autumn days spinning away to the year's end.

This autumn enjoy the season's bounty in good things for your table; fruits, vegetables, delicacies, game, hearty meat dishes for the crispier days ahead. Add a bit of Fall's glorious color spectrum to your wardrobe with sweaters, tweeds, amber and leaf-hued sueded.

Prepare your home (indoors and out) for the holidays that are only weeks away. Repair, re-equip, re-roof, paint, remodel. Re-stock cupboard, linen and kitchen shelves with entertaining, hostess, and hospitality needs. Examine your wardrobe with a view to week-ends out of town at football games, in the city, enjoying first-rank theatrical attractions, the opera, visiting family and friends.

The world-famous stores in your own community, owned and operated by your friends and neighbors, have everything you need to enable you to enjoy fall to its fullest.

"Plaintiff" Provides Quietly Humorous Pleasant Entertainment

BY MAX TADLOCK

Nothing is more pleasant for the regular theatre-goer than a regular change of diet—from musical to tragedy to mystery to comedy to melodrama. Plaintiff in a Pretty Hat, currently playing at the Golden Bough Circle Theatre, is an excellent new taste sensation if your palate is jaded with typically robust American Theatre.

Not only is it a type of drama not commonly seen here (English drawing room comedy), but the leisurely pace of the action gives the audience an opportunity to savor fully the quiet humor of every scene.

For an American audience, the only real criticism may lie in the pacing. But if it is occasionally slow, it is never ponderous.

Not yet produced in New York, the play had a long and successful London run, and rights were obtained there by Edward Kuster, who not only directed the local production but also plays one of the roles.

When the play opens, we find the Earl of Hewlyn tackling the breach of promise suit being brought against his son Lord Plymmon. The son having offered his hand to Jennifer Wren, an efficient and attractive American journalist, now finds himself in love with and also engaged to the lovely Lady Susan Creel.

It would be unfair to give away the denouement, but need we say that love will out, and the final curtain finds two of our literate and delightful characters quoting the joyous lines of Leigh Hunt's "Jenny Kissed Me."

Certainly part of the charm of this production lies in the casting. Gail Maitre as the American career girl brings the sense of maturity and self-sufficiency to her role on which the entire action hinges. Her skillful verbal fencing with her canny opponent, the Earl, is the very reason for the play.

Proper accent and physical appearance are apparent in the rest of the cast.

Although Frederick Elstob is listed as the Earl, on Saturday night the role was played by Frederick Rider. Slim and quite elegant even though engaged in trade to maintain the family estate, he is as admirable a stage character as I've met in a long time.

Caught in the trap of double engagement was Winston Elstob as the Earl's heir. Concerned over doing the right thing by everyone, he places full, although at times wavering, reliance in his father to extricate him.

Patricia Ross as Lady Creel has the lovely throaty voice found occasionally among British actresses. This with her professional interpretation of a young peeress gave real lustre to her performance.

Especial delight of the audience was the crusty Watkyn, game-keeper-butler to the Earl. With a rich Welsh accent, Mr. Kuster chuckled, grumbled, counselled, and sang his way through a most

LEAGUE STUDIES CITY GOV'T.

The Carmel unit of the League of Women Voters, studying city government, will hold its first meeting of the current year on Tuesday afternoon at 1:00 o'clock in the home of Mrs. Adrian Bennett. Interested citizens as well as members of the League are welcome to attend. Further information may be obtained by calling Mrs. Bennett at MA 4-4870.

This is the second half of the two-year study of Carmel's municipal government. At this opening meeting a panel will review the departments within the city government and discuss the relationship of contiguous areas from the tax standpoint.

The Know Your Town study groups are being held in all of the peninsula towns, with the hope that interest in city government may lead to better government as well as better informed citizens. The group may later focus their attention on some other phase of Carmel government.

The atom tests fuels for S. P.

One of the most important jobs we have at Southern Pacific is keeping our fleet of 2,000 diesel locomotives operating at peak efficiency. Recently we equipped two locomotives for standing tests with "hot" or radioactive piston rings. Geiger tubes count the particles of metal worn off the rings. As a result, we're now getting information in 6 to 8 hours that ordinary tests could give us only after 1 to 2 years. These tests, conducted jointly with Standard Oil Company of California, tell us the effects of different fuels, lubricants and improved engine parts on engine operation and wear.

Here is another example of how S. P. makes use of the latest developments in science to provide better, more dependable transportation—a complete, modern service that we'd like to have you try.

The 8-state Golden Empire served by Southern Pacific is one of the fastest-growing and most productive areas in the U. S. It is our job to match this vitality with dynamic, resourceful transportation service.

Jackson Announces Carmel Members Of Truth About Water

Members of a Carmel executive council of the Truth About Water Committee were announced today by Corum Jackson, local chairman of the group which opposes formation of a Monterey Peninsula Municipal Water District.

The executive council includes Paul Bovard, Wesley W. Kergan, Andy Martin, Frank D. Moller, Dr. John W. Robertson and Arthur R. Wise.

Jackson said others would be added as election day nears. Total membership of the Truth About Water Committee in Carmel is more than 100 people.

The committee's next campaign move will be the mailing of a fact sheet on the issue in question and answer form to all Carmel residents. The mailing will be made next week, Jackson said.

Jackson said that a recent survey of Monterey County taxing agencies showed that the total number was now 91.

"However very few of these have the unlimited power to tax which is given by law to a municipal water district," he said.

"The public has no control over the directors' arbitrary power to tax or raise water rates at will except through the extremely cumbersome and impractical recall process."

He said that most of the more than 100 Carmel residents who had joined the committee were chiefly worried about the district's taxing power.

Miss C. Allcutt

Miss Clementine Colledge Allcutt died on Saturday in a local hospital after being in failing health for some time.

She was born in Australia on April 9, 1895, and lived in San Francisco until three months ago when she moved to Carmel, the home of her sisters, Mrs. Eleanor A. Clark and Miss Elizabeth Allcutt.

Survivors, besides Mrs. Clark and Miss Allcutt, are two other sisters, Mrs. Adam A. Grant of Kansas City, Missouri, and Mrs. Rowena A. Logan of Washington, D.C.

SPEAKER TO EXPLAIN KOINONIA PROJECT

America's orientation program for overseas service in the unarmed forces will be the subject of a talk by Mrs. Bertha Jarrett, Koinonia representative, Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock in the Parish Hall of St. John's Episcopal Church on Fremont Street in Monterey.

Russia sends hundreds of civilian workers overseas to America's one. Koinonia attempts to fill up this gap. People are needed for goodwill missions: in engineering, on the farms, in business, in the schools, in health posts, in churches, and in government service. Persons who have such jobs or who are seeking opportunities to serve in all parts of the world come together at the headquarters of the Koinonia Foundation near Baltimore, Maryland, to learn the issues and to gain spiritual strength for the task. Others are needed to work at home, supporting those who are overseas. This program has the approval of government officials.

In the afternoon Mrs. Jarrett will address the United Church Women at 1:30 in the Methodist Church of Seaside.

CANCER SOCIETY OFFICERS

H. William Monroe is the new president of the Monterey County branch of the American Cancer Society. An insurance broker in Monterey, Mr. Monroe lives in Carmel with his wife and three children. He attended Carmel schools before continuing his education at the University of Oregon where he was affiliated with Alpha Tau Omega fraternity. During World War II, Mr. Monroe served with the Marines in the South Pacific.

Colden O. Whitman is the new secretary of the local Cancer Society branch; Ralph W. Thompson, Carmel, is treasurer; and Mrs. Rody Brunn Holt of Carmel Valley is an executive committee member.

On the board of directors from the Carmel area are Mrs. Shreve M. Archer, Miss Pamela Dormody, Mrs. Thomson J. Hudson, R. Stafford Hughes, Dr. Marilyn Smith, Mrs. Frederick S. Stanley and Mrs. Peter Stolich.

MPVS Carnival Up The Valley Tomorrow Promises Big Day

Preparations for the Country Carnival to take place tomorrow at Rancho del Monte are going on today, so that booths will be decorated and well stocked and entertainment planned to the last detail by members of the Monterey Peninsula Volunteer Services.

The timetable of main events is as follows: 2:00 o'clock, opening of carnival; 3:00 o'clock, Fashion Show with Dr. Payton Cunningham, professor of physics at the Naval Postgraduate School as commentator; at 4:00 tea will be served; from 6:30 to 8:30 a delicious home-cooked buffet dinner of hot and cold dishes; 8:30 to 11:00 dancing; 9:00 o'clock, auction of items which include some Hank Ketcham original drawings of Dennis the Menace.

During dinner and later there will be entertainment by Bill Monroe's Barber Shop Quartet, and exhibition diving and swimming by members of Stanford's swim team; palms will be read by Mrs. Herbert Liese, handwriting analyzed by Miss Frances Harrison or Mrs. Verne McDermott; portraits sketched by artist James Solt—after 5:00 o'clock. Games of skill include fishing for prize small bottles in the children's pool, or putting on a golf machine.

Mrs. Thurman Bane is properties chairman; Mrs. Robert Stanton has directed the decorations. Booths include the Green Thumb, filled with choice plants from Peninsula gardens; Bits and Pieces, a collection of handmade items suitable for gifts; Treasure Chest, with antique silver and china and items from many parts of the world; The Pantry, stocked with homemade goodies of great variety; Gifts from Everywhere, unopened parcel-post packages from many areas; Grog and Smokes, soft drinks and cigarettes.

Trulee And Mike Married

Wedding music was played on the organ in the Carmel Presbyterian Church on Saturday evening while guests assembled for wedding of Trulee Elaine Scarlett and Michael Gene Ricketts. Dr. Joseph M. Ewing performed the 5:00 o'clock ceremony before the candlelit altar decorated with white flowers.

The bride was given in marriage by her father Trueman E. Scarlett. Her white taffeta gown had a longsleeved fitted bodice from which fell a full skirt which extended in back into a chapel train. A crown of pearls held her fingertip veil in place and she carried a spray arrangement of stephanotis and bouvardia surrounding white orchids.

Her childhood friend and schoolmate Diane Redding attended her as maid of honor in an emerald green satin dress, matching shoes and green feather hat, and carrying a white carnation bouquet.

Gene Vandervort was best man for the groom, and ushers were the bride's brother Eric Scarlett and David Hildebrand.

Mrs. Scarlett attended her daughter's marriage wearing a navy blue draped sheath dress, matching shoes, a light blue velvet hat and a white butterfly orchid corsage.

The groom's mother, Mrs. Gene Ricketts, wore a printed silk dress in various shades of brown with brown shoes. Her henna colored hat was made of feathers and her corsage was similar to that of the bride's mother.

The reception for 200 guests was held in the home of the bride's parents in Carmel Valley. Begonias in various colors decorated the house with white begonias and bouvardia surrounding the three-tiered wedding cake on the bride's table, covered with a cloth embroidered by Mrs. Edith Larson, the bride's grandmother, before her marriage 50 years ago.

After a honeymoon in Mexico, the bride and groom will live in Carmel. For travelling, the bride wore a black wool dress and jacket, matching shoes and feather hat, and the orchids from the center of her wedding bouquet.

The bride graduated from Carmel High School before studying for two years at the University of Colorado. Her husband, also, is a Carmel High graduate and served in the U. S. Marine Corps before attending Fresno State College. He is now employed by Turner and McElroy, masonry contractors, in Carmel.

Attend Frosh Camp

Patricia Timothy of Carmel and Xenia Kastor of Carmel Valley were among the 300 students who attended a three-day Frosh Camp last week at the Santa Barbara campus of the University of California.

The "campers" were housed on the campus at Santa Rosa Hall, with meals served in the new dining commons. Entertainment included sports, swimming, dances, skits, fireside chats and singing. There were also discussion groups to inform the new students on registration procedure, university services, extra-curricular activities and scholarship.

Entertain St. Louis Visitors

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Mac Lennan (E. Cashion Mac Lennan) entertained in honor of Mrs. Albert Fairbank Fairchild and Mr. and Mrs. Harold M. Newton with a luncheon Saturday at Highlands Inn. Dr. and Mrs. Robert Newton were also members of the party. Mrs. Fairchild is in Carmel from her home in St. Louis, Missouri, to spend several weeks with her son-in-law and daughter, Dr. and Mrs. Newton. Mr. and Mrs. Harold Newton, parents of Dr. Newton, are returning soon to their St. Louis home after a summer's visit here.

Louis Mayers To Winter Here

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Mayer (Dora Hagemeyer) are expected to arrive in Carmel from Fishkill, New York, early in October. They plan to remain here until next spring occupying Mrs. Mayer's former Carmel home.

Michael Ross At Bellarmine

Michael Ross, son of Mrs. Cathleen M. Ross, is one of the 225 boarding students at Bellarmine College Preparatory School in San Jose.

Ellots Home From Iran

Mr. and Mrs. Mather Eliot are living in the stone cottage on the beach at the foot of Eighth Street until early December. For the past two years their home has been in Teheran where Mr. Eliot was in public relations work for the oil consortium, an international group of companies working with the Iranian government to operate the Persian oil industry.

On their way to Carmel, the Eliots spent a month in the Transcaucasus area of the Soviet Union, another month in India, and a third month in Japan, as well as visiting southeast Asian countries. When they leave here they plan to travel in Europe.

"After the desert, it's quite a change to live on the beach," says Mrs. Eliot.

Portrait Unveiling Party

Artist Richard Rodriguez was guest of honor at a recent buffet supper party given by Miss Ora Regina Fallis, when his portrait of the hostess was unveiled for the guests. Present on this occasion were Lieutenant James Stolz, Mr. and Mrs. Pio Junco, Marlinda von Ruhs, Axel Duhe, Frank Andrews, John Todd and Lee Black. After the unveiling and supper, Miss Fallis, at the request of her friends, read poems from her book, Grains of Sand.

James Lyons Have Daughter

Mr. and Mrs. James Lippincott Lyons of Big Sur have added a daughter to their family of two sons. The baby, named Elisabeth, was born at the Monterey Hospital on September 12. Her father is a local authority on jazz, and conceived the idea of the forthcoming Jazz Festival at the Fairgrounds.

Mrs. Mead Back In Carmel

Mrs. Effie Mead is home in Carmel after spending the summer months in the State of Washington. She visited her mother, Mrs. J. M. Williams, in Aberdeen, and also spent time seeing her brother and sisters and their families. Mrs. Mead retired from her position with the telephone company in January and is now local representative for a cosmetics firm.

Larry Rose To L. A.

City Clerk Larry Rose leaves today for Los Angeles to attend meetings of the city clerks' committee preparing a handbook for city council procedures. Larry's contribution is the arrangements of agendas.

From Tuesday to Friday of last week Larry was on vacation. He "built no fences and no windmills" but toured wineries in the Santa Cruz area and the valley behind Gilroy with Mrs. Rose. They also visited bulb farms. The winery-bulb exploration was another instalment of the Rose family's "discover your own environment" vacation policy.

Miss Lindsay-Oliver Abroad

A letter from Miss Mary Lindsay-Oliver, crossing the Atlantic on the Caronia, tells that when she left Carmel for the East, she did not know she would be visiting Britain, but that is what is happening. She expects to fly back to Carmel from Scotland about the middle of October and is sure that her pupils, "a faithful lot, won't grudge me the extra time." The program notes for the first concert of the Monterey County Symphony will be sent air mail from Scotland, in plenty of time for printing, Miss Lindsay-Oliver promises, lest anyone should think that in the excitement of an unexpected trip abroad she might have forgotten her Carmel responsibilities. Miss Lindsay-Oliver is the Pine Cone music critic and an ardent symphony supporter.

Nell Enters Stanford

Dr. and Mrs. Joseph Giarratana drove their son Neil to Palo Alto on Wednesday morning to enter Stanford University. Neil graduated from Carmel High School in June as valedictorian of the class of 1958 and was awarded a Gold C as outstanding boy in the class, judged on the basis of scholarship, participation in athletics and extra-curricular student activities. He also won honors at entrance to Stanford.

Mrs. Heisinger At All Saints'

The Vera Millis Library of All Saints' Church will present Mrs. Everett Heisinger, children's librarian at the Harrison Memorial Library, in a review of children's books on October 3 at 3:00 o'clock in the Parish Hall. All interested persons are invited to attend.

Carmel Foundation Notes

On Wednesday the Carmel Foundation will feature a talk by J. William MacLennan, former Dean of Men and Head of the History Department at Santa Barbara College, now a part of the University of California. Mr. MacLennan's subject will be, Manners and Superstitions, that is, our modes of acting and the effect superstitions have upon them. Mr. MacLennan has lectured extensively to clubs and other organizations. During the First World War he lectured in the Chicago Civic Auditorium on the causes and backgrounds of the war, and during the last war, in army camps in Southern California and also in the Santa Barbara Public Library. The program will begin at 3:00 o'clock and will be followed by tea.

Mrs. Kern, Spencer, Back Tuesday

Mrs. Herman Kern and her son Spencer arrived home in Carmel on Tuesday after two months of European travel. Among the cities they visited were London, Rome and Venice. They attended the Edinburgh Festival and the Brussels Fair. "We enjoyed everything but the Near East," says Mrs. Kern.

Moores Vacation Ends

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Moore spent the week before last in the High Sierra above Huntington Lake. Their two children Michael and Kathleen went with them but stayed home with their grandmother, Mrs. James Burgess, last weekend while the Moores were away on a trip to San Francisco.

Town Topics . . .

County planning commissioner Keith Evans raises his own lamb chops on his coastal property on Partington Ridge below Big Sur. He maintains a small flock of a dozen Corriedale sheep to provide lamb for his larder, and feeds the future chops fruit and vegetables as well as grass grown in his permanent pasture, kept green with frequent watering.

Former Carmel mayor, city planning commissioner and businessman, Mr. Evans also at one time, worked on sheep stations in his native country Australia.

Sunset School art teacher Joe Broadman has an article in the September issue of School Arts magazine with illustrations by pupils Eugenie Kodani and Dick Jensen and an unidentified student who contributes a picture called Purple People Eater.

Seems custodian Tom Brosnan went past the Sunset art room with a wastebasket containing "a few dozen purple used duplicator sheets." Mr. Broadman saw the sheets and, "after a brief hassle obtained the windfall." He pondered how to use his material, and decided his art pupils could illustrate a visit to a purple planet. Their imaginations, sputnik stimulated, soared off into a science fiction world. "The enthusiasm was tremendous and was still going strong three days later," says Mr. Broadman in his article.

How did Sunset students use those old duplicator sheets and end up in a magazine? "They drew on the carbon with a pencil, thumbnail, stick or other sharp object. Then the design was held under water to release the indelible ink. We found that the old crayon resist idea works fine with this," Mr. Broadman reports. "Seventh and eighth grade boys and girls were actually coming after school to pick up duplicator blanks to take home to experiment with."

Pat on the back this week goes to Carmel High School students. Last Friday night in Salinas the football team made the highest score in the annual Coast Counties Athletic League event and, for the second consecutive year, Carmel students in the stands were awarded the trophy for the best rooting section.

Symphony Guild Festival Party

After the Sunday afternoon concert of the Jazz Festival next weekend the Monterey County Symphony Guild plans a reception for the Symphony Orchestra, stars of the Festival and Guild guests in the Hunt Club at the Fairgrounds. Mrs. Robert McKeever and Mrs. Jack J. Miller are co-chairman for the party, working with all Guild members.

This week, Symphony Guild members are making up boxes for the Jazz Festival. The Guild is selling Festival box seats to support the Monterey County Symphony Orchestra this season.

PUBLIC INVITED TO FAREWELL PARTY FOR GENERAL BRECKENRIDGE

The public is invited to the salute to the departing commander of Fort Ord, Major General William Mattingly Breckenridge, on Saturday morning at 10:00 o'clock. Massed troops, comprising the majority of Fort Ord's units, a 13-gun salute and a fly over of Army aircraft trailing vari-colored smoke will be included in the ceremony.

General Breckenridge leaves next week for his new assignment with Eighth Army headquarters in Korea. His replacement, Major General Carl Ferdinand Fritsche, Chief of Staff, Fifth US Army arrives at Fort Ord in mid-Octo-

ESTABLISHED IN 1941

2nd "Poor Little Pfeiffer" Meeting At H. S. Wednesday

The County Committee on School District Organization will meet for a second time at the Carmel High School Library, Wednesday night at 8:00 o'clock on the subject of Poor Little Pfeiffer, and the chain reaction of problems its need for expansion (from a one-room to a two-room country school) has set in motion.

At last week's meeting, after hearing Pfeiffer's troubles, namely, no suitable site in its own district near Big Sur Park, the committee decided that it needed more facts before it could recommend Pfeiffer's unification with Monterey, which is contingent on Monterey's willingness to unify its elementary city schools with its high school district. Pfeiffer, and Palo Colorado which also comes in the picture but has no problems, are a part of the Monterey high school district now, but has their own district to support their elementary schools.

ber. Until he arrives, Brigadier General Fred W. Sladen will be Fort Ord's commanding general.

The county committee decided to study costs and possible educational advantages of unification, and set up an "argued committee" consisting of themselves—11 county committee members—augmented by representatives from the school boards of Monterey High School District, Monterey City Schools, Marina, Pfeiffer, Palo Colorado and Carmel Unified School District.

Carmel becomes involved if Monterey does not wish to unify, or if the state department of education frowns on the down-coast schools' unifying with a district with which they are not contiguous. Carmel district lies between the down coast schools and the proposed Monterey-Marina Unified School District. It is possible Pfeiffer and Palo Colorado will wish to annex to the Carmel district if Monterey doesn't unify and if Carmel wants them.

Material developed from the studies of the augmented committee will be reported and discussed at Wednesday night's meeting.

Does it hurt? No, not when you have a conscientious operator with humane feelings, one who will treat you like she would like to be treated.

Does it cost much? When you think the pleasure of knowing that you will never have to tweeze, use a depilatory or shave ever again, it really is money well spent.

Does it scar? When the operator is efficient and takes proper precautions, and uses the knowledge and the study and training with which they receive their license, there is no scarring or any danger.

CHARMER WANTS FAMILY TO LOVE

FOUND. On P. G. Cut-off, Labor Day Week End, a year old small black and white spaniel, beautiful house manners, is a good watch dog but stops barking on command. Made friends with our cats and is mad about riding in car. Despite wearing both flea and other collars, had no identification. Have tried for three weeks to find owners. Have given him bath, license and rabies shot. Now won't you help find him a new family to love? Phone MA 4-7666.

Carmel Point Polls
Property Owners
On Annexation

The Point Board of Director's letter lists the advantages of annexation for the Point. They have derived this information, presumably, from a separate study. Carmel Unincorporated sponsored such a study last year. The findings of the Neddersen Committee will not be available to them until after October 8, nor has the Neddersen Committee made its study from the point of view of advantage to the outlying districts.

The Point Directors' letter:

"As you know, your Board of Directors has been studying the pros and cons of the annexation of Carmel Point with the City of Carmel and has come to the unanimous conclusion that it would be to the benefit of the property owners on Carmel Point to do so, in view of the information received.

"At the annual meeting held Monday night, September 15, a vote was taken to ascertain the opinion of those present, which showed two to one in favor of annexation.

"It is our purpose to set forth briefly, impersonally and impartially, the result of our investigation.

"Advantages: Better Fire Protection, Better Police Protection, Better Zoning & Planning, Better Streets, Mail Delivery continued as at present.

"At present, the residents on the Point are dependent upon the State Forestry Department for fire protection — that department may not always be immediately available, in case of forest fires, etc.

"According to information received, our area is rated by the National Board of Fire Underwriters in Group 10 — the highest. City of Carmel is rated in Class 5.

"At present our area is dependent upon the Sheriff's Office for police protection which may not always be immediately available because of limited personnel.

"Your attention is directed to a very unsatisfactory condition existing at the newly opened parking area at Carmelo and Scenic which has attracted overnight campers, drinking parties, hot-rod speeders and vandalism.

"It is our understanding that being annexed to the City would increase the tax rate 96 1/2 cents per hundred-dollar valuation. To figure the additional cost to you, multiply your present assessed valuation by 96 1/2 cents. From this amount deduct a probable 50% saving on fire insurance, a possible reduction in utility rates, and an income tax deduction, depending upon the bracket you are in.

"May we suggest figuring the additional cost to you on a monthly basis, as we feel sure that the benefits received from annexation will be well worth the small additional monthly cost to you? It is also felt that annexation will maintain and increase the values of property on Carmel Point.

"The purpose of this letter is to get the thinking of our entire membership. If the majority favor annexation, we can proceed vigorously in conforming with the legal procedure.

"Will you please indicate your wishes by returning the enclosed postal card before October 1st? This will serve in the nature of a straw vote.

Respectfully submitted for your consideration by your Board of Directors, namely: Mrs. Margaret Page, Mrs. R. B. McGinnis, Mrs. Florence Stewart, Frank D. Mollier, A. C. Hughes, E. H. Ewig, R. R. Ross, George H. Forman, Charles P. McHarry."

Abbott Silva

Abbott B. Silva collapsed yesterday morning while in the garden of Dr. R. P. Parsons and was pronounced dead on arrival at the Peninsula Community Hospital. He had been taking care of the garden while the owner was in Europe.

Mr. Silva was born in Thomasville, Georgia, on October 4, 1885. His father was the late artist William P. Silva, and his mother was Caroline Beecher Silva. He was a graduate of Yale University and the Davies School of Missoula, Montana, where he received training for his profession as a tree specialist.

After his father established a home in Carmel, Mr. Silva visited frequently and spent his honeymoon here. In 1948, after his father's death, Abbott Silva made Carmel his permanent home.

Always keenly interested in the town and its people, he maintained the stamp exhibit in the children's room at the Harrison Memorial Library, and in 1950 established the annual Silva award for good sportsmanship at Carmel High School, one of his father's pictures.

Mr. Silva was an enthusiastic member of the Monterey Peninsula Audubon Society, and was Screen Tour chairman at the time of his death. He also took an active interest in the Monterey Peninsula Stamp Club. He was a member of the First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Carmel.

Survivors are his wife, Gladys

Council Approves
Environs Part
Of Master Plan

(Continued from Page One) the "arterial" terminology if it wishes to keep faith technically with the state highway department, but several of the council members wanted the four lane phrase stricken from the plan. There is a possibility that if this is done, the plan may have to go back to the planning commission and through another round of public hearings; and the state of the council's conscience on the matter does not brook further delay. The council hopes for a favorable ruling from City Attorney John Morse.

Gordon C. Browne

Gordon C. Browne, a resident of Carmel for the past 30 years, died this morning in his home on Santa Rita Street. He was born in Hickley, New York, on January 14, 1893.

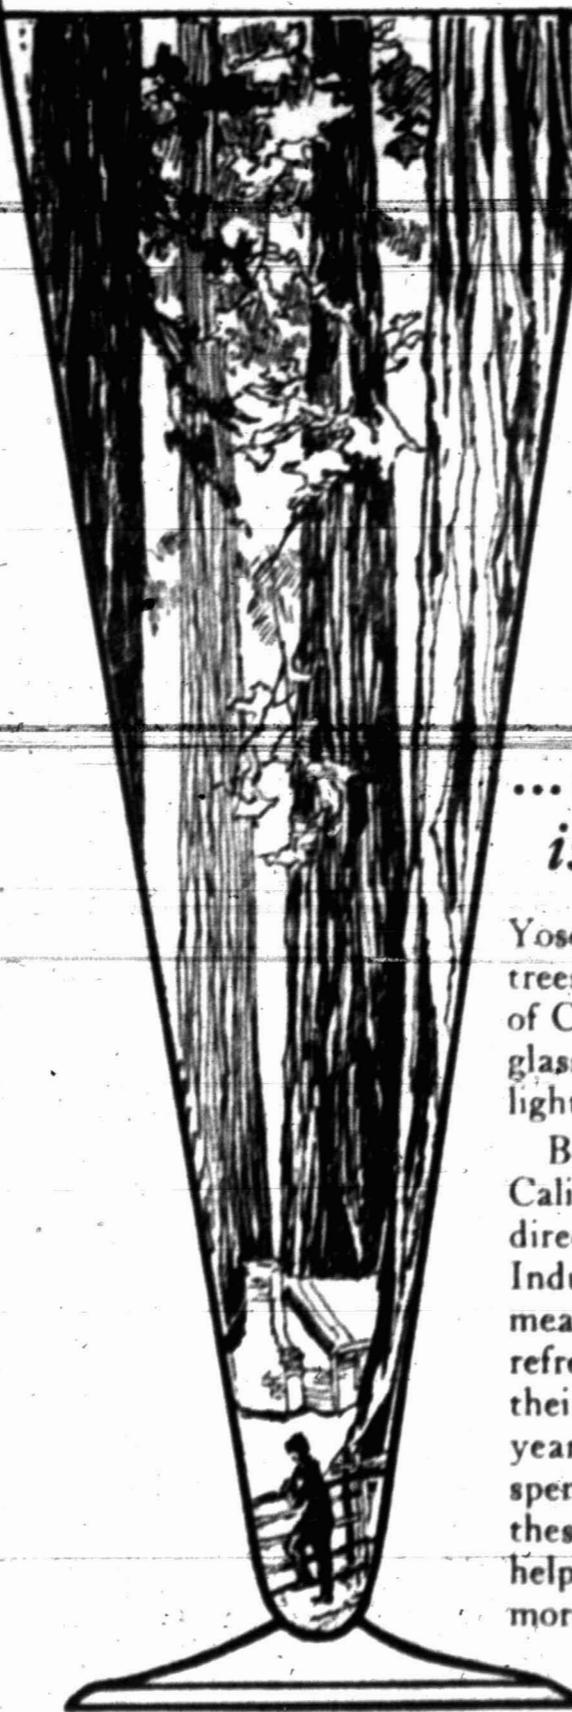

Mr. Browne was a World War I veteran; member and past master of Carmel Lodge, No. 680, F. & A. M.; member and past patron of Carmel Chapter, No. 581, Order of the Eastern Star; member of the Order of the White Shrine of Jerusalem, Golden Rule Shrine, No. 43, Monterey; and Scottish Rite, San Jose Consistory, No. 9.

He is survived by his wife Alma R. Browne of Carmel; a stepson, Edward Files of San Diego; a stepdaughter, Mrs. Fred Nicholas of the Monterey Peninsula Country Club; a brother P. F. Browne of Southern California; and one grandson.

Funeral arrangements are pending and will be announced later by Paul Mortuary.

H. Silva of Carmel; and two sons, Abbott B. Silva, Jr., of Oklahoma City and William H. Silva of Los Angeles.

*...a glass of beer
is many things*

Yosemite's giant Redwood trees stand as a symbol of California just as a glass of beer stands for light, bright refreshment.

But to the nearly 8,000 Californians engaged directly in the Brewing Industry, a glass of beer means more than cool refreshment. It means their livelihood. Each year, by earning and spending in our state, these men and women help to make California more prosperous.
